Data and Privacy Policy

This policy applies equally to Obasho Ltd and My Natural Colours Ltd based here in the UK. If you have any questions at all about our Privacy Policy, please do not hesitate to get in touch via email or telephone.

Information we use, how & why

When shopping online with Obasho Ltd or My Natural Colours Ltd, we ask for information such as your name, email and delivery address and credit or debit card details directly or via our secure partners. A contact telephone number may also be requested so that you can be contacted if needed. All this information is necessary to process & notify you of your order or services. We may also collect web browsing information so that we can continue to improve the performance of our website.

If you complete any information request forms they will specify before you press the go button what we will use the data collected for and we will only use it for that reason.

If you make use of our online booking systems, we will only use your data for that purpose unless you give further permission for other uses.

Once you have completed your consultations with Obasho Ltd and My Natural Colours Ltd then they may hold style, personality, colour or other personal details including the results of that consultation, which may include but is not limited to your colour palettes, cosmetics and clothing preferences. This data may then be used to filter out any offers, promotions, items or services that would not be suitable for you as well as other business uses.
